Lessons & Handouts

All the lessons used in class can be found on my website:

<https://www.hursthhistory.org>

and on PowerSchool as the year progresses.

It is strongly suggested that you know how to fully use my website during the first week of class.

Quizzes, Tests, and Examinations

Advance notice will be given prior to any quizzes

All tests will be administered according to the school calendar

The Final (Mid-Term) Examination will be in January

Review sheets will be provided, if necessary, before each assessment

Communication

I use the school email system to notify you of any events, changes, review sheets and quizzes.

Please make sure that you monitor your school email account on a regular basis and that you know your password.

Not knowing or forgetting your password is NOT a valid excuse

Note Taking

I have no objection to either hand-written notes
or the use of your iPad

If you are using your iPad, I suggest GoodNotes as my lessons and handouts are in .PDF format and easy to upload.

If you are hand-writing your notes, I strongly suggest that you keep them in a logical, chronological order in a strong binder.

If you are absent, it is your responsibility to catch-up immediately upon your return to school.

Text and Review Books

Your textbook is NOT needed for class. You can keep it at home and use for further reading or studying for tests.

Later in the school year you will receive a Regents Review Book. This is also NOT needed for class so you can also keep it at home.

Other Items of Note

I do NOT like giving Make-Up Assignments. My goal is to learn the material first time and then move on.

There is a great deal of content material to be covered in the school year, so I expect you to be on time for class every day.

The longer it takes to settle and start the period, the more work you will have to do at home!

Food and drink is acceptable in class if permitted by the school.
However, no three-course lunches!

I expect you to clean-up after yourselves, we do not have a maid!

We Can Do It!
