

Propaganda poster created showing two of Roosevelt's Great White Fleet vessels entering one of locks on the Panama Canal

Cartoon of Teddy Roosevelt digging his own canal, paving the way for U.S. Imperialism

The Roosevelt Collorary became the enforcer for the Panama Canal and Caribbean nations.

Picture of Teddy Roosevelt on the canal-digging machine in Panama

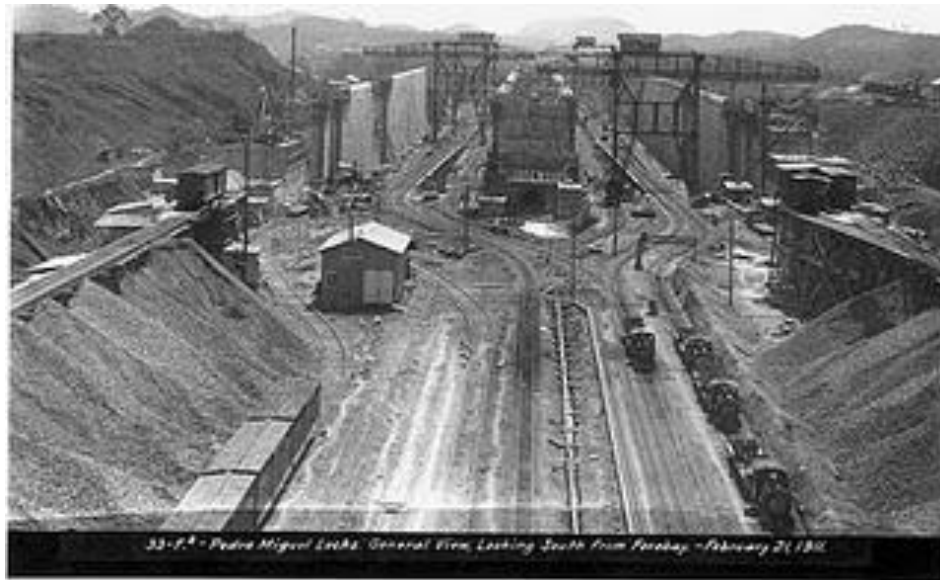

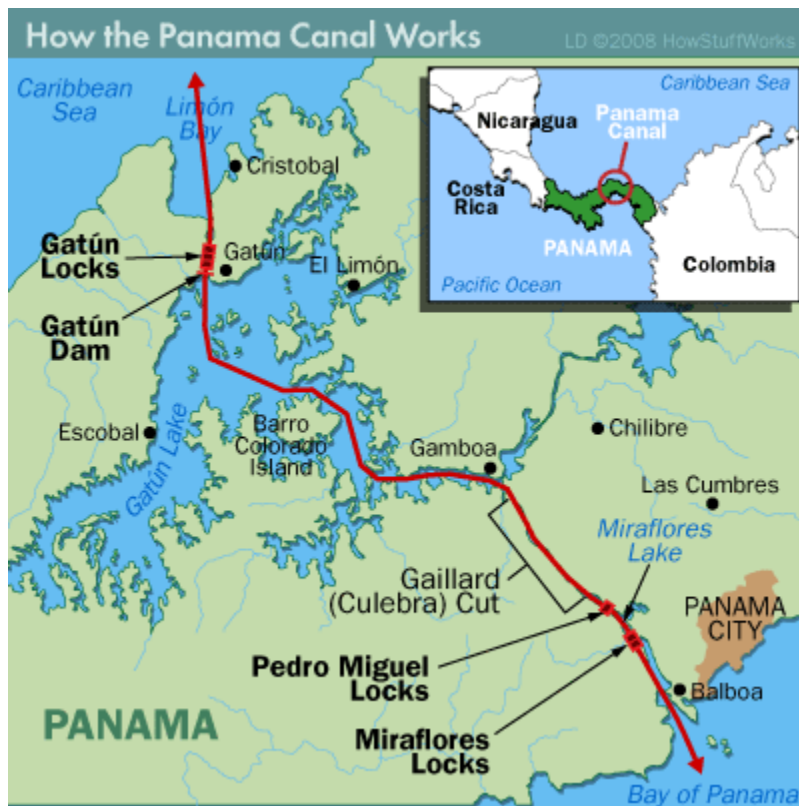

Photo taken of the canal during construction

An aerial view of a Maersk Line cargo ship in the canal

A photo of a canal lock in use today. Note how narrow it is and because of this plans are under way to widen the canal so the newer, larger cargo ships can pass through easier. Cruise ships actually overhand the sides of the locks! See the next two photographs.

