What might happen to the production of the Snickers Bar if?

There was a severe weather change in Argentina?

Civil war erupted in Guyana?

There was a severe drought in Iowa?

An extensive forest fire destroyed millions of acres of trees in Canada?

How would all of this affect us on Halloween?

Do we depend on other countries for ingredients or resources for other products? Can you think of some?

Place a star on New Jersey on your map. Now locate the places the ingredients come from on your map. Then draw a line from each place to the star, New Jersey, where the Snickers Bar is made. How might these ingredients be transported to New Jersey to make the candy bar?
